Items of General Interest

Advanced Class will be represented in the Typewriting Contest at University during High School

Literary Digest Liberty Map Europe was recently purchased by history pupils for use in the the courtesy of the Board of Education, copies of the Gregg Writer's Manual to be supplied to the Short-handlers for use in connection with their regular work.

Typewriting classes were the recipients of an autographed copy of the History of the Typewriter by the author, Charles E. Wells, also the Secretary of the Shorthand Reporters' Association.

"Sudden-Peggy" has been selected as the Senior Class play, but the cast has not been definitely chosen. Rehearsals will begin in the future under the capable direction of Miss Lemmon.

Miss R. Gregg is in receipt of a letter from the author, Charles E. Wells, thanking her and the pupils of the Gregg Writer's School for their interest in the book.

Miss Woods and Earl Thomas of the Senior Class were recently awarded Initial Certificates for speed and accuracy in typewriting by the Undergraduate Department.

The following schedule of group programs has been made out, each group to give but one more entertainment this year:

Group 2	February 18
Group 3	March 11
Group 4	March 31
Group 5	April 22
Group 6	May 13
General Assembly	June 3

Miss Rose Kellner, Carbon County Cross Nurse, has been spending one week of each month in Hanna. Her aim is to improve the health of the children by corrective measures. She has given instructive talks in the bus class rooms relative to the kind of food children should eat, the amount of sleep necessary, exercise, habits, etc.

Chillicothe Business College of Chillicothe, Missouri, extends to the Senior Class of the High School an offer of a Free Scholarship together with a Certificate of Award. This double honor is to be given to the member of the Senior Class receiving the best grades and pronounced the Honor Graduate.

GREETINGS

This being the first publication undertaken by the Hanna High School, likewise the first of any kind in Hanna, some of its aims may be of interest to the community.

The High School now has an enrollment of more than three times that of February 1, 1918. This is conclusive evidence that it is successful and also that it must be rendering service, else the loyal support that has been accorded it would not have been given. Such being true is it not likewise true that the spirit of the High School should have some means of making itself known and felt throughout the community.

From a literary standpoint, the training in publishing this paper will be a most valuable asset to the High School pupils and will be a most practical application of theories already learned. The business training received in looking after the finances and publication of such a paper may some day be very valuable to those who have had such experience.

The business men of Hanna and Elmo have no means of acquainting the people or the community with their merchandise. If there were daily or even weekly newspapers in the community, I would not venture to say that advertising in the "Pioneer" would be the best. There being none, I can say sincerely that every cent paid out for advertising in this paper will return substantial profit in merchandise sold.

The people of the community have always shown a keen interest in the school and all of its undertakings. In view of this, we hope to make this publication interesting to them; so interesting that even a better understanding can be brought out.

It will be the aim of the "Pioneer" at all times to render service to the community, just as the school renders its service. This publication being something of a sign-post, will keep continually before the people the activities of the school. We shall publish school news of interest as well as some of the more important camp news.

For the present this paper will be published monthly. How?, you may ask. By your support, we hope. The rates to our advertisers will be just as low as possible. A small subscription price will be charged, which we hope, with the advertising, will make this venture a success, just as much of a success as our High School. The Wyoming Labor Journal Publishing Company of Cheyenne will do the printing. They have made us a very good price on this, considering the quality of paper and workmanship.

This paper will be published without profit to anyone. There are no salaries. The expenses represent the cost of paper, printing, express, and postage. The High School people receive nothing but experience, and I hope, your good will, for their efforts.

The "Pioneer" was chosen as a name after a long and strenuous debate. It has the support of the entire Hanna High School, who believe that you who came to this country during the early days will appreciate the significance which such a title carries. It is also true that such a title is appropriate for a first publication.

The work of publishing as well as the managing of the "Pioneer", will be in charge of the Junior class, a class, who by their unbounded spirit, hearty co-operation, and loyal support, have been a vital factor in making this High School what it is. I have my best wishes for their new undertaking.

For a purpose, and not for profit. If after you have read this first issue, you believe it to be worthy, give it your support. Moral support and encouragement are the most needed in making it a success. Remember, the "Pioneer" is yours, so if you know of an interesting piece of news, see that it reaches some member of the staff.

With best wishes to the staff and trusting that you, the reading public, will appreciate the effort of these High School people in this undertaking,
I am, Sincerely yours,
A. D. BURFORD,
Supt. of Schools.

A CORRECTION

An item appeared in the Hanna notes of the Rawlins Republican under date of January 27, stating that the lecture given by Robert Parker Miles on January 27 was the last number of the Lyceum course. This is a mistake. There are two numbers yet—The Watteau Girls on February 15, and Roseleth Knapp Breed on March 19th.

Noted Lecturer Visits High School

The students of both the Junior and the Senior High School received a very unusual treat Thursday afternoon, January 27th, in the form of an interesting address delivered by Dr. Robert Parker Miles, a noted lecturer, traveler, and writer. Dr. Miles related, in a very interesting manner, his struggles to reach the pinnacle of fame. He came to America from England at the age of 17, entirely without an education, but as a result of his own never-ceasing efforts, Dr. Miles now occupies an enviable position as one of the "famous fifteen Americans". His life should indeed serve as an inspiration to all.

The students of the High School consider it a great pleasure to have been able to hear a speaker of such note.

Dr. Miles also spoke at the Opera House Thursday evening to a rather small but appreciative audience. In his lecture, the subject of which was "Tallow Dips", Dr. Miles told of his visits to the celebrated men of Europe and America, and gave his impression of famous characters such as Gladstone, Balfour, the German Emperor, and others. He engaged the attention of his audience throughout the entire length of his talk.

This lecture by Dr. Miles was the third of a series of entertainments given by the Ellison-White Lyceum Circuit, under the auspices of the Hanna High School.

THANK YOU!

The student body of the Hanna High School, together with the staff of the "Pioneer", wish to take this opportunity of expressing their sincere appreciation and thanks for the cooperation given us by the business men of Hanna and Elmo. The success of this publication depends entirely upon the willingness of the business men to advertise; and to those who inserted advertisements in this issue, we again wish to express our thanks.

"THE PIONEER"

We believe that a more appropriate title could not have been selected for our high school paper. It is indeed a "Pioneer" in all that the name implies, being the first venture of its kind undertaken by the Hanna High School; and in fact, the first publication of any sort ever issued in Hanna. This paper emanated from a desire upon the part of the pupils and faculty to have some means of informing the people of Hanna of what is being done within the school.

For some reason, previous plans for a high school paper failed to materialize. But now that our object has been attained, we will strive to make this paper a complete success. That it will be a success cannot for a moment be doubted when we consider that we have the hearty cooperation of the entire student body; and with the proper support on the part of the townspeople there is no reason why the "Pioneer" cannot become one of the foremost school publications of the state.

By the issuance of this paper we hope to arouse the interest and spirit of the students, and also to better acquaint the people of the community with what is being accomplished by their sons and daughters.

Much has been said regarding school spirit, and many efforts have been made to awaken this feeling upon the part of the students. Our student body has often been berated for the apparent lack of this quality; but after all has been said, the students of the Hanna High are as loyal a body of students as can be found anywhere. We believe that nothing can be more conducive to the promotion of school spirit than a publication of this kind.

As a record of school life the "Pioneer" will be invaluable, and aside from its value as a record of school activities, it affords excellent training for those who have a part in compiling it.

The staff, with the assistance of the student body and faculty, will endeavor to the best of their abilities to publish, at monthly intervals, an interesting periodical which we trust will engage the attention of all.

Many thanks are due Superintendent A. D. Burford, who made this paper possible, and to Miss Connell, who has been of great assistance to the staff.

In closing, let us say that we have earnestly endeavored to make this, the first issue of the "Pioneer", of more than passing interest to all of our friends and patrons, and we sincerely hope that our efforts will be appreciated.

JUST FOR FUN

Father: James, just look at this report card; the grades range from 75 to 40.

James: Well, dad, how can I help that?

Father: By studying your lessons.

James: I always try to study, but Miss Pederson tells me to stop.

Father: That's impossible.

James: Why, listen to reason, father, I usually study so loud that she thinks I'm whispering.

Freshie: How can you take four out of one?

Sophomore: Why, how absurd; that's impossible.

Freshie: You might take it out of one gallon.

Junior to Sophomore: You are a wonderful dancer, except for two things.

Sophomore: What are they?
Junior: Your feet.

"Where were you yesterday, Lempi?" asked Miss Connell.

"I had a toothache," replied Lempi.

"Has it stopped?" was asked sympathetically.

"I don't know."

"Why, what do you mean, Lempi? You don't know if your tooth has stopped aching?"

"No, the dentist kept it."

Irving to John: "A horse is tied to a rope seven feet long; there's a bale of hay ten feet away. Now, John can you tell me how the horse got the hay?"

John: "He couldn't get it."

Irving: But he certainly did for the horse was only tied to a rope seven feet long, and the rope wasn't tied to anything, so what could hinder him from getting the hay?"

Hilda (To Henry) May I chaperon you and Lily tonight?

Henry: Why is that necessary?

Hilda: You might get lost.

Henry: How's that; I know the town too well.

Hilda: Well, you know at times "Love is Blind."

Two words were born twins, "I" and "Am".

There are two powers that cooperate, "I" and "Can".

There are two ideas that work together, "I" and "Do".

There are two thoughts that conceive and bear fruit, "I" and "Shall".

There are two spirits that make harmony, "I" and "Will".

Congratulations

May we take this opportunity to compliment you, Members of the Board of Education, Faculty and Pupils of the Hanna Schools, upon the appearance of the first number of The Pioneer and to congratulate you upon the splendid display of cooperation which makes such a paper possible?

We bespeak for your delightful little paper continued success.

Its publication will serve a great purpose in bringing parents, teachers, pupils and us together in a better understanding of our responsibilities toward each other.

It will help to foster a finer and happier community spirit, the value of which is so overlooked in these feverish modern days.

Here's to your prosperity, "PIONEER" your days be many!

JUNIOR NOTES.

The work of publishing the "Pioneer" has fallen to the Junior class and is being conducted with their accustomed vigor and dispatch. With a staff of undoubted ability and the support of the entire student body we feel confident of predicting a long and successful career for the first paper of Hanna.

"A loud laugh bespeaks a vacant mind." However, as far as the Freshmen are concerned, this does not hold true. How can a concrete solid possibly be vacant?

The Juniors have deferred selecting their class colors until samples of the various combinations have been obtained. This is a commendable policy as it will enable the students to judge at first hand the relative merits of the different colors.

Earl complains that a certain young lady has no heart; however, we are inclined to believe that the young lady at least has his.

Although Albert Kinghorn does not claim to be a singer, the Junior class is agreed that he renders his favorite selection—"The Campbell's are Coming", quite well.

Ida Annala and Elsie Meekin were among the absentees this month. Elsie says she was unaware of the fact that she had a heart until she lost it—well, we promised not to tell.

Sylvester Huhtala and Earl Thomas are deserving of congratulations, being the only Juniors who have a perfect attendance record for the past semester.

Henry Woods, who is leader of group II, announces that hereafter his group will work under the caption of "The Nameless Eight." Why not the "Intolerable Eight?"

We are glad to see Melvin Denson back in school after a prolonged absence due to a severe case of blood

You know, Hilda is real shy around boys. At least she says she is. We thought we had something on her the other night when we saw her walking home with a young man; but she says it was only her cousin. Its queer how a person can have so many "cousins" in a tight fix.

We have heard of the horrors of war, but now we have the horrors of peace. What could be more horrible than "listening" to Jane Wright chew gum?

SENIOR NOTES.

It is said that "Brevity is the soul of wit." As our class is small in numbers, we must be humor personified.

The new textbook, "Modern American Prose Selections" by Rees, is being used to good advantage in our English Class.

Consideration is being given to the selection of class rings.

Rehearsals for the class play will begin at once. It is hoped that it may be presented early in April.

Mary Ellen Sherratt believes that practice makes perfect, hence her spare time is being spent in letter writing.

OLD MEN'S AND OLD TIMERS' CLUB

It is with a great deal of pleasure that the people of the community learn of the reorganization of the Old Men's and Old Timers' club. This is an organization which binds together, for the best interests of the community, those who are the Pioneers. The present officers who are S. Dickinson, President; S. D. Briggs, Secretary and T. H. Butler, Treasurer, assure success for the organization.

On February 22 the club will have its annual "Big Time". This will be all that the name implies, and it includes dancing, feasting and more.

SOPHOMORE NOTES.

Margaret Campbell, who entered school as a Freshman several weeks ago, has been placed in the Sophomore class. She was extended a cordial welcome by her new class mates.

Harry Lyons, a former student in the Hanna schools, arrived last month from Salt Lake City, where he was attending The Granite High School. He has resumed his studies as a Sophomore.

Our class has also been enlarged by the enrollment of no less a personage than Austin O'Malley, erstwhile Freshman of last year. This brings the total number of Sophomores up to 17.

Lempi Matson was absent from school one day last week on account of illness.

A meeting of the Sophomore class was held the first of the month, for the purpose of electing class officers and selecting class colors. The names of the officers chosen will be found elsewhere in this issue. Silver-grey and pink were selected as class colors and the pink carnation was chosen as its floral emblem.

FRESHMAN INCIDENTALS

During the past few weeks the Freshman class has been enlarged through the enrollment of Emily Campbell and Donald Martin.

Too bad that the upper classmen cannot show enough brain power to hope to complete with their highnesses—the Freshman.

We are not supplying information but watch the date—February 11.

Possibly you have noticed the show of affection existing between Mark and Millie.

According to all reports, James Crank is in the act of applying for a patent on his new system of communication

We all hoped for exemption from the semester examinations; but Alas! With the exception of one, all succumbed to their fates.

The Algebra I class has been divided into two sections. It is hoped that all members of both sections will strive for a good grade this semester.

English I will, in the near future, read "Silas Marner."

Those absent during the month were: Lionel Love, Albert Crawford, Donald Martin, Lester Cole, Emmer Rimmer and Margaret Jackson.

All of the Freshman class have decided to show the way to the rest of the High School by becoming model students. Juniors please take notice.

"Unfriendly" is not the word for stating the relations existing between Lester and Jessie.

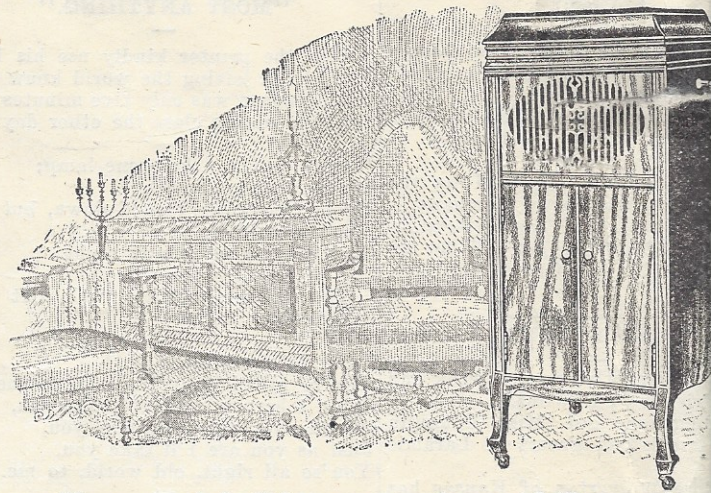

The Freshman class has been reading accounts of the great men of the world, for the purpose of determining whether the Junior boys have any of the characteristics of famous men. We feel sure that were it not for the fact that they lack the brains and ability, they would all be second Wilsons or Clemenceaus.

It seems that certain members of the Freshman Latin class are so fond of study that they are holding evening sessions three times a week, under the supervision of Miss Connell. We might mention the fact that they are not doing it of their own accord.

Members of the "Hobo Club," composed of High School Freshmen, have unanimously decided to give up taking excursions to Medicine Bow, a la "side-door" Pullman.

Never look to an exclusively political paper for good reading matter. You might as well try to get wool by shearing a hydraulic ram.

The bone of contention is said to be the jaw-bone.
